Dear Sir:

Your letter was handed me upon my return from Virginia, and I thank you for the Courtesy, inasmuch as I can claim no control of the disposition of the "Pastoral Visit."

In view of the fact that the villainous chromo of the picture
- which I can find no law to sup-
- press - has damaged my reputa- tion more than any conscientious copy could do I see no good rea-
- son to object to its being copied.

I should however greatly prefer that it should not be made a source of speculation in this way, which you will readily see would not only lower the value of the original, but be injurious to me.

Yours very respectfully Richd. W. Brooke.

Dear Sir,

We hope when you get around to it you will seriously think of purchasing one of the pictures by Mr J. M. Gangunigil whose works we control. At the Sney Sale his picture "A difficult question" brought 1600 and was one of the few pictures that held up to the original cost. He at present is not much known outside of Boston but the Auction is a crucial test of Art works and we are satisfied with the present result of this one. We send you a marked catalogue

Respectfully

Sir:

Whilst in W. some time ago (at the Inauguration) I visited your Gallery, and saw a painting of a drum corps on parade. You have a photograph of the same, framed I believe in the little room on the right of the main entrance. I at the time of my visit was told that you had copies for sale. Now can you let me know the price, (with-out the frame) and whether you could send some to J. F. Jarvis on Penn. Ave, where I will order some more pictures, which can then all be sent at once. - The pictures I intend to frame and put up in the company quarters, The Busch Loaves, an early will greatly oblige, -

Yours Truly

whether the painting was a drum corps, or a company of infantry.
